ON CENTER SOFTWARE WELCOMES ACCUBUILD AS ITS NEWEST INTEGRATED BUSINESS PARTNER

The Woodlands, Texas (May 11, 2010)—On Center Software, the leading construction-industry software developer, proudly announces AccuBuild Texas as its newest integrated business partner. Accubuild Construction Software joins a long list of successful On Center Software partners.

AccuBuild is a construction accounting software developer and distributor. The company will now expand its construction program offerings to include On Center Software's On-Screen Takeoff[®], Quick Bid and Digital Production Control[™]. AccuBuild has been researching ways to expand its construction software product lineup, and On Center Software was the company's decided solution toward continued success. According to Josh Stearns, AccuBuild's VP of Sales and Marketing, the company's search for an estimating, bidding and project-tracking software integration ended with On Center Software. Says Stearns, "Once we viewed the On Center Software demo, we knew our search for an estimating solution was over. On Center Software's approach to streamlining operations through cutting-edge technology falls right in line with AccuBuild's philosophy."

On Center Software's construction technology partnership with AccuBuild furthers its goal of providing a custom integration of estimating, bidding and project-tracking programs to an increasing number of construction technology adopters.
